For your ideal wedding reception

Hartington Village Hall is a registered charity
Charity No. 525048

Close to the centre of our beautiful village, Hartington Village Hall is a traditional hall set within the stunning Peak District National Park. Built in 1924, its modest exterior belies a tardis-like interior, licenced to hold up to 200 people & offering:

- Large sprung, maple dance floor
- Bar and Kitchen facilities
- Toilets
- Stage for band/disco
- Quieter area – ideal for serving buffets
- Tables and Chairs

For Brides & Grooms who are planning to marry at St. Giles' Church, the Village Hall is opposite the Church (in the background), providing a convenient and perfect venue for your wedding reception. Or perhaps you may wish to serve drinks and canapés to your guests, whilst your photographs are being taken.

St. Giles' Church, Hartington, our beautiful 13th century Church.

Hartington Village Hall can be decorated in any style. During one wedding here, the Village Hall was bedecked with linen & made to look like an elegant marquee, complete with candelabra.
